 - o In the video, Personal Info. can be observed stating the following comments, which appear to be indicative of violence and threats against PM TRUDEAU.
 - o “Will I take the bullet for the country?”
 - o “Will I take a bullet for my country yah? I’ll take it in the heart, in the chin, in the forehead – yeah.”
 - o (About TRUDEAU): “Have yourself a nice life... I don’t know where you’re going but have yourself nice life, peaceful life because funny thing it’s not going to be on the planet earth.”
 - o “Next weekend I’m going to welcome you to a new world trudeau you think ... (undecipherable) wait till you see what happens next, not only in Ottawa, Toronto, Windsor, every border from East to West Coast.”
 - o “I hate the pigs.”
 - o Personal Info. also makes a reference to the SOLDIERS OF ODIN. SOLDIERS OF ODIN are reported to have violent members and are linked to anti-immigrant political beliefs. Open source information indicates that Personal Info. had previously posted content involving the SOLDIERS OF ODIN.

Subjects of Interest:

- CIG OSINT located a video of Personal Info. on Facebook where he goes on a rant with the following highlights: [\[ii\]](#)
 - o Indicates that he is a disabled person, showing off his prosthetic leg.
 - o MP Charles Angus named him in the commons, saying he was a violent person.

- Angus endorses a PM that will send the military on children in bouncy castles.
 - NDP leader Jagmeet Singh is a racist for endorsing a PM that does black face and a terrorist in his own country, India, for not denouncing the Air India incident.
 - Claims the NDP as paid antifa in the past and that he has the evidence.
 - Then criticizes Canada Unity for claiming all his hard work.
 - Indicates he's been chased by cops all night and he chased cops.
 - Indicates he is not a violent person and he is disabled.
 - He will not give up.
- RCMP informed of a video posted by Personal Info. on Twitter: [\[iii\]](#)
 - Personal discusses a 'plan' with convoy protesters about what to do if police enforcement occurs. It is unclear what their plan is, and protesters appear to be confused and asking convoy leadership for guidance on whether to help protesters if they're arrested, or to stand down.
 - Personal states that Personal Info. was the only person at "Command" available last night and confirmed that Personal would "tell everyone what's going on" and Perso reiterates "the retired RCMP officer sniper, who is somehow in charge of everybody."

Additional Intel Updates:

- As of 1455hrs, RCMP reported the following:
 - Truckers were observed setting up their hydraulics in order to make it harder to tow them.
- CIG OSINT located an alleged officer who appears to criticize the State of Emergency announced by Premier of Ontario, Doug Ford. CIG has not identified whether the individual is a police officer – the name tag is difficult to read due to the video's quality and the uniform has not been recognized by the members of the CIG. [\[iv\]](#)
- CIG OSINT located on Feb. 17, 2022, approximately one hour ago, the official Freedom Convoy 2022 post put out a statement indicating the following:

- PPS-PI advised of an upcoming rally which will be held on February 19, starting at noon.
 - Rally & March to End the Occupation
 - Starting at Minto Park (102 Lewis St.).
 - Will include 2km march. Route has not been publicized.
 - PI has no information to indicate that the 2km march route has any nexus to the Parliamentary Precinct.
 - NCR based labour and housing-issue groups are involved in the planning and promotion of the event
 - These groups were among those who had promoted and organized the Community Solidarity Rally & March on Feb. 12th at Lansdowne.
 - The event’s purported intention is to show support to frontline workers, oppose white supremacy and other forms of hate that has been directed at residents, express support for public health measures, and call for an end to the Convoy occupation
 - The event purports to be peaceful, and reportedly does not intend to engage with the Convoy
 - PI has noted significant early social media engagement. 175 Facebook users have expressed an interest in the event page since it was posted at 12:21.
 - Organizing groups are likely communicating event information to their members via private message/email. [v]
- OPP Intel located a post from Randy Hiller on Twitter stating: “I have received confirmation that approximately 200 tractors will be arriving in Ottawa shortly. The emergency act is not deterring the thirst for freedom.” [vi]
